Military life presents unique challenges that friends, family and colleagues in the civilian world may not experience or understand. Fleet and Family Readiness (FFR), in conjunction with other Navy and civilian partners, has many resources to help our warfighters and family members. FFR is the umbrella for a multitude of programs and services which operate separately but frequently collaborate to meet the needs of the Navy as a whole

Fleet and Family Support Conters (FFSC): Your FFSCs provide a wide variety of education and training, information and referral and counseling for service members and family members. Programs under the FFSC umbrella include Clinical Counseling, Deployment, Exceptional Family Member Program, Family Advocacy, Family Employment Readiness, Integrated Primary Prevention, Life Skills Education and Training, Ombudsman Program, Personal Financial Management, Relocation, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response, the Transition Assistance Program, and Emergency Family Assistance.

Morale Welfare and Recreation (MWR): MWR contributes significantly to fleet readiness. MWR activities and services help our sailors and families stay fit and have fun through deployed forces support, fitness and sports, ITT (information, tickets & travel), liberty programs, libraries, marinas, movies, outdoor recreation, campgrounds, vacation rentals and other programs.

hild and Youth Programs (CYP): Navy Child and Youth Programs provide developmental childcare and youth recreational programs and services for eligible children and youth ages 4 weeks to 18 years of age.
