Home School Support - The Northwest Military Home school Support Group is a parent-led and supported group for homeschoolers who are military-connected. Registration is required through the Naval Support Activity Hampton Roads - Northwest Youth Center. Meetings take place on the second and fourth Thursday of each month and are held at the Youth Center. Homeschoolers have the opportunity to use the Youth Center facility and resources for students ranging in age from five to 17, but tag-alongs (younger kids) are welcome. A parent must be present whenever their child attends a meeting. The Northwest Military Homeschool Support Group has a community service focus and is dedicated to "giving back." Through volunteering, our participants promote personal growth and self-esteem while strengthening our community. Other parent-led lessons and activities have an emphasis on science, technology, engineering and math (STEM).

and by scheduled appointment

The School Liaison Officer (SLO) serves as a conduit to the installation's Commanding Officer, military families and schools by providing assistance in matters pertaining to student education. The SLO also helps schools and installations respond to the complexities of transition and deployment while providing military families the assurance that their children's academic well-being is a priority.

Navy SLOs provide seven core services:

1. School Transition Services (PCS in/out)
2. Deployment Support
3. Command, School & Community Communication
4. Special Education System Navigation
5. Home School Linkage and Support
6. Partnerships in Education
7. Post-Secondary Preparations

Drop-in program:

Monday - Friday, 6:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The NSA HR - Portsmouth Child Wait Center/Child Development Center is a dual-functioning childcare facility. We serve as a full-time Child Development Center for our active duty/DoD/government contractor parents, as well as a drop-in childcare center for patients with appointments at the Naval Medical Center. The Child Development Center (CDC) services children ages six weeks to five years old (infants, pre-toddlers, toddlers and preschoolers). We are a smaller center with only one classroom per age group. Each classroom is designed for the growth and development of our children. Our caregivers work diligently to ensure that quality care and nurturance is given to each child. The Child Wait Center (CWC) offers free childcare services, for children ages six weeks to five years old, for patients with medical appointments and classes at NMC Portsmouth.

Notes

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The paper has a slightly textured appearance. At the top and bottom edges, there are decorative wavy borders in shades of light blue and green. The right side of the paper is partially obscured by a dark blue vertical strip, which appears to be part of a binder or folder.
